

Staff Counselor
Lafayette College
Easton, PA

Lafayette College is currently seeking applicants to fill the 10-month position of Staff Counselor at its Counseling Center. The Counseling Center provides high-quality counseling, educational programs, and psychological assessments designed to help students learn how to identify and meet their intellectual, interpersonal, and developmental goals and to promote a healthy, equitable, and positive campus community. The center also provides crisis intervention and consultation to faculty, staff, and parents to assist them in their efforts to promote student learning and well-being.

Responsibilities:

- Providing short-term individual, couples, and group counseling.
- Evaluating and responding to students in crisis during and after business hours.
- Consulting with faculty, staff, parents, and health care providers.
- Delivering outreach programs to the community on topics related to counseling and mental health.
- Training student leaders.
- Participating in meetings and committees of the Division of Campus Life.

Requirements:

- The ideal candidate will be licensed as a mental health professional in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, hold a masters or doctoral degree in counseling, counseling/clinical psychology, or social work from an accredited institution, and have experience working with young adults.
- Candidates who have training and experience with Dialectical Behavior Therapy (DBT) and/or substance abuse treatment are encouraged to apply.
- Preference will be given to candidates who have experience in a college or university counseling center and who have experience and demonstrated commitment to providing culturally-aware counseling to persons of color, members of the GLBTQ community, low income individuals, first generation college students and/or international students.
- Candidates should be dedicated to ongoing professional development and to working collaboratively with colleagues in and out of the center.
- Individuals who are eligible to become licensed as psychologists, clinical social workers, or professional counselors within one year may be considered.

Lafayette College offers competitive salary and benefits package.
