

Clinical Director

The Anxiety Institute is a clinical practice specializing in the treatment of anxiety and related disorders for adolescents and young adults, ages 13 to 25. Our multidisciplinary team provides evidenced-based treatments while nurturing the patient in their local home environment. These advanced, proven techniques focus on treating teens and young adults while coaching the parents who guide them.

With the opening of a new location in Boca Raton, Florida, we seek a skilled clinician and leader to serve as Clinical Director for the site. The Clinical Director must be eager to help recruit, hire, and train new clinical staff and join with the senior management team to help forge the company's expansion and strategic direction. At Anxiety Institute, our staff is comprised of genuine, compassionate, and empathetic people who focus on the value and goodness in every person. We hire personable, collaborative, and dedicated team players who are willing to grow with the company and welcome the challenge of complex cases.

Position Summary

Reporting to the Chief Clinical Officer (CCO), the Clinical Director works closely with the senior management team and provides exemplary leadership, management, supervision, and treatment consistent with the Anxiety Institute's therapeutic orientation and core values. They will also lead the clinical team to provide innovative, evidence-based treatment to individuals, groups, and families. Upon hire, staff complete a formal clinical training program, reinforced by a quarterly company-wide professional development series. Clinical Directors provide up to three hours of weekly clinical supervision for each primary clinician. Clinical Directors receive up to two hours of supervision each week with the CCO and senior team members.
